

HIGHER CERTIFICATE IN BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

- Broad overview of business management functions.
- Skills-based vocational qualification at NQF 5 level.
- An alternative entry point into higher education.

The vocational NQF 5 qualification provides a solid foundation in various aspects of business including knowledge and skills of management functions (planning, organising, leading and controlling) as well as insight into areas such as marketing, supply chain and project management. As a graduate, you will be able to apply the knowledge you gain in real-world work settings, be eligible to apply for entry-level business function positions or you can apply for admission to SACAP's Bachelor of Applied Social Science programme, majoring in psychology and business management, or psychology and human resource management. Alternatively, you can explore any other Diploma or undergraduate Bachelor's degree programmes in business management or any of its functional areas.
